

SONNENALP RESORT of Vail

Pick Your Perfect Package	A Favorite Autumn Bike Ride	New Spa Rooms Added	Vail's Calendar of Events	NY Philharmonic Returns to Vail
---------------------------	-----------------------------	---------------------	---------------------------	---------------------------------

IN THIS ISSUE

Saying Goodbye to the Swiss Hotel

Its location alone made the Swiss Hotel one of Vail's most recognized landmarks. Soon it will be gone, making way for a new 20-unit condominium project that will offer full and fractional residence ownership, a new restaurant, retail establishments and underground parking. It is an exciting addition to the town of Vail. It is a sentimental farewell from the Sonnenalp Family of Resort & Hotels.

The Faessler family acquired the property in 1986. Originally the Talisman Lodge, the Faessler family added an Old World touch and introduced the Sonnenalp style of service. The Swiss Hotel has enjoyed a loyal clientele and has been home to the Swiss Chalet Restaurant, a favorite among locals and visitors alike for 20 years.

"The Swiss Hotel has been a memorable destination for many of our guests who liked the intimacy and simplicity of the hotel. To the many guests who have called the Swiss Hotel home over the years, we are extending a warm invitation to experience the Sonnenalp Resort. We promise to keep a touch of the Swiss always in the Sonnenalp Resort," said owner Johannes Faessler.

The new condominium project is scheduled for completion in 2005 and is one of the most visible and anticipated redevelopments in the town of Vail. For more information on the redevelopment of the Swiss Hotel, please call Sonnenalp Real Estate at 970-477-5300. Look for updates on the progress of the development throughout the year.

